

Press Release – August 12, 2019

From: The Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum

RE: Heritage Square Concert Series – celebrating the Museum’s 80th year - free and open to the public.

The Museum hosts a noontime concert in Heritage Square each Wednesday in September:

4th – The way-out western stylings of “The Home Rangers”

11th – Back by popular demand “The Tom Page Trio”

18th – In the finest tradition “Mariachi Jalisco”

25th – Bringing back the Days of Hamilton Park – “The Blue Moon Brass Band”

Bring a lunch or buy a lunch from food vendors and enjoy the music.

The concerts are sponsored by:

The Wichita Eagle – KSN-TV – Radio Kansas 90.1 FM

And The Museum’s Business Members

This year marks the 80th Anniversary of the Museum and its work to collect, preserve and educate through the interpretation of our local history. Over the years the Museum has featured an encyclopedic range of exhibits telling stories using artifacts – material culture bearing tangible evidence of the past. Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums since 1972, the Museum is one of America’s finest museums and a tremendous community asset.

The Museum has occupied the Original City Hall building since the late 1970’s when Heritage Square was created as a companion feature by the Junior League of Wichita. Heritage Square is accessed through the Museum.
