

Press Release – Tuesday, March 17th 2020

From: The Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum

RE: Temporary public closure

In response to current health concerns, the Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum will be closed effective today, March 17 through Tuesday, March 31. Updates will be available through the Museum's website or by calling the Museum Office. The Museum has cancelled or postponed public museum events through Sunday, May 10 following an advisory from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC). We will continue to share our local history through our social media channels including Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

The Museum is recognized as one of America's finest museums of local history. It celebrates its 81st anniversary this year, accredited by the AAM and occupying the original 1890 Wichita City Hall building since 1980.
