BLOOMFIELD CARILLON CONCERT SERIES AT THE WICHITA-SEDGWICK CO HISTORICAL MUSEUM

July 1st @ 12-1PM

Admission FREE

Open to the public, All ages

Join us July 1st for an early Independence Day celebration at the Historical Museum, with a special Monday lunchtime concert!

From the Museum's clock tower, the Bloomfield Foundation continues an over half-century tradition as the Carillon will be played from 12-1pm.

The Carillon can best be heard in the Museum's Heritage Square. Bring your lunch, or stop by a local restaurant for a carryout meal, and wander down to the Museum for a mid-day break inside Heritage Square, or enjoy street side the beautiful sounds of the Carillon.

The 2023-4 Season is presented under the direction of Lynne Davis, Robert L. Town Distinguished Professor of Organ Wichita State University -- School of Music, funded by The Sam & Rie Bloomfield Foundation.

The Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum is one of America's leading local history museums and accredited by the American Alliance of Museum since 1972. It has served the community since 1939 and since 1980 has occupied Wichita's original 1890 City Hall building.
