School's out for Spring Break and The Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum invites you to two Sundays of all-ages tours and activities! On March 15th & 22nd, their Spring Break Programs will include a tour of a different area of the museum and a family activity!

- Sunday, March 15th: "Clock Wise: Tower Tours and Activity"
Experience behind-the-scenes with a tour of the Museum's Clock Tower and try your hand at designing your own clock face!
- Sunday, March 22nd: "Making History: Curate Your Own Exhibit"
Arrange photos from the Museum's collection to organize and display your own exhibit. Come up with a unique title too! Discover obscure artifacts and try to match them with their descriptions. Finally, take a tour of our special exhibit, Portraits from the Museum Collection, before it closes at the end of the month.

All programs are FREE admission and open to the public. Guided Tours start at 1:30pm, 2:30pm, and 3:30pm. No reservation necessary; come and go between 1-4pm each day for a family activity they are sure to remember!
